

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON AT SEATTLE

AMIGA, INC., a Delaware corporation,

Plaintiffs,

v.

HYPERION VOF, a Belgium corporation,

Defendant.

No. 07-0631-RSM

SUPPLEMENTAL DECLARATION OF WILLIAM A KINSEL IN SUPPORT OF HYPERION'S OBJECTION TO AND MEMORANDUM IN OPPOSITION TO
PLAINTIFF'S EX-PARTE MOTION FOR EXPEDITED DISCOVERY

WILLIAM A. KINSEL, under penalty of perjury, declares and states as follows:

1. I am the attorney for defendant Hyperion VOF in this matter and am competent to testify.

2. After filing my original declaration in this matter on May 8, 2007, I realized that I had mistakenly written that Dutch, French and German are the official languages of Denmark. I meant to say that they are the official languages of Belgium, as is reflected on Exhibit A hereto, which is a true and accurate copy of a page from a BBC Education website.

Belgium

Official Languages: French, Dutch and German. Wallon, the local variant of French, is used by 33% of population. Flemish, the local variant of Dutch, is used by more than 60% of the population, and is spoken in the northern part of the country. The languages learned at school are officially labelled French and Dutch. German, spoken by 1% of population can be found in the cantons in the east of the Wallon region. Brussels, the capital of Belgium, has two official languages: French and Dutch.

Luxembourgish is spoken by around 0.5% of the population, but the language has no official status.

About 10% of the Belgian population are non-native, and languages spoken include Italian, Greek, Arabic and Turkish.
